LECTURE NOTES (1973-74)

I. Overview

0. From pre-transformational linguistics.
1. Argument-requirements.
2. Operator position: unrestricted source.
3. Entry structure.
4. Optional reductions (variants).
5. Some properties of the analysis.

II. Operators

0. Method.
1. Elementary operators; case.
2. Operators on one discourse only: C₀; operand-indicators.
3. Operators on elementary arguments and one discourse: Oₙ₀, O₀₁, Oₙ₀₁.
4. Operators on two discourses: non-associative; operand-indicators.
5. Associative operators on two discourses: and, or; whether.
7. Metadiscourse C₀₀: wh-.
8. Metalinguistic operators and discourses; grammar; quotation.

III. Reductions

0. Introduction.
1. Many-one variants.
   1.1 Pronoun for repetition; I, you; deictics.
   1.2 Zero for repetition: under and, or; comparative; under O₀₀; O₀₁.
   1.3 Zero for constants: indefinites; which is; I say; operator-segments.
   1.4 Zero for appropriate words: unique, compounds; amount, moment; prepositions; classifiers; performatives; metadiscourse.
2. One-one variants.
   2.1-3 Attachment.
   2.1 Attachment of inflectional affixes.
   2.2 Attachment of intonation; sentence.
   2.3 Attachment of operators: affixes.
   2.4-8 Permutation.
   2.4 To addressee: sameness-operator; second-sentence residue.
   2.5 After zeroing of wh-; compounds.
   2.6 Oₙ₀ position of O₀ operators; auxiliaries; permuted O₀ (aspectuals).
   2.7 Length permutations.
   2.8 Episodic permutations: Permuted operand-indicator; the passive; special-word permutations.
3. Required morphophonemics: agreement, be tense-carrier, timeless present, count noun.
IV. Survey of the Grammar

0. Introduction.
1. Sentence types: assertion; question; imperative; other.
2. Tense.
  2.1 Tense from time-order.
  2.2 Tense on tense.
  2.3 Aspect.
  2.4 Aspectual operators.
  2.5 Evidential (as against time-order) meanings.
  2.6 Time-conjunctions.
  2.7 Subjunctive.
3. Word classes.
  3.1 A, P, N.
  3.2 Auxiliaries.
  3.3 Subordinate conjunctions.
  3.4 Adverbs.
  3.5 Sentence-nominalizations.

4. Affixes.
  4.1 Suffixes.
  4.1.1 Event-nominalization.
  4.1.2 Quality-nominalization.
  4.1.3 Product-nominalization.
  4.1.4 Agent-nominalization.
  4.1.5 Affixed appropriate operators.
  4.1.6 Aspectual A.
  4.1.7 Aspectual V.
  4.1.8 Causative.
  4.1.9 Suffixes without compounding.
  4.2 Prefixes.
  4.2.1 Appropriate operators.
  4.2.2 Causative.
  4.2.3 Negative on V.
  4.2.4 Negative on A.
  4.2.5 Adverbial.
  4.2.6 Adjectival.

5. Sentence structures affected by appropriate zeroing.
  5.1 Comparative.
  5.2 Terminal-state zeroed: He returned a hero.
  5.3 States in respect to verb-and-object: I drink my coffee black.
  5.4 Adverb on appropriate verb: He is a weak king.
  5.5 Zeroing of subjunctive nominalizer: He is easy to meet.

6. Indefinite and and zeroings.
  6.1 Extraction: The book is what fell; It is true that he left.
  6.2 Agent-nouns, names, classifiers; covert reference.
  6.3 Restrictive relative clause; delays.
  6.4 The.
  6.5 Quantifiers; scale-words; fragment-words.
  6.6 Collectives, respectively.
  6.7 Reciprocals.

7. Metaphor.
